Applicants should note that volunteer positions are filled by matching our needs with an applicant's abilities and interests. Factors may include, but are not limited to, experience, education and training, availability, and long-term career goals. Some positions are short term (for specific projects). Other positions require training for long-term development and mutual benefit. Volunteering may involve administrative work, facilities maintenance and improvement, education, development (memberships, fundraising, marketing), and/ or animal care. You will ultimately be assigned to tasks based on the needs of the facility on a given day, so you should be prepared to help in a variety of areas.

Please include a resume detailing educational experience, work experience, volunteer experience, and any special skills you may have.
